Type of Case: Review Hearing

The Panel will review the case of Hock Pin Yoong, a General Practitioner, whose registration is subject to conditions until 21 April 2005 in consequence of a direction by the Professional Conduct Committee in July 2003.

Dr Yoong exercised his right of appeal to the Royal Courts of Justice against the decision, but officially withdrew the appeal on 22 October 2003. His registration therefore became subject to the conditions imposed by the Professional Conduct Committee with effect from this date.

In July 2003, the Committee found proved the allegations that Dr Yoong had allowed non-qualified persons to carry out duties requiring the knowledge and skills of a registered medical practitioner.
