23 February 2005

Meet the manager at Coventry

Passengers using Coventry station are being invited to come and discuss any concerns or issues they may have with rail managers on Thursday 24 February.

A team representing Virgin Trains, Central Trains and Network Rail will be on the main station concourse during the evening rush hour between 4:30 pm and 7:00 pm.

Subjects likely to be high on the agenda include pricing, timetables and train running performance.
