

26th April 2005

News Release

Thank You to Departing Council Members

The Health Professions Council (HPC) is currently holding its first Council election. July 8th 2005 will bring to an end the term of office of the current Council. All forty members of Council, including the thirteen alternate professional members will stand down. Those professional members who want to seek re-election are standing along with any other individuals wishing put themselves forward.

Following the nomination deadline on the 26th April (extended for alternate members of three professions), the HPC can confirm that the following Council Members have sadly chosen not to stand for re-election and will therefore stand down after their final Council meeting on the 7th July.

Registrant Members

Mary Crawford, Occupational therapist

Joanna Manning, Paramedic

Clare McGartland, Orthoptist

Stephen Wordsworth, Operating department practitioner

Sandy Yule, Radiographer

Alternate Members

Graham Beastall, Clinical scientist

Rosemary Klem, Radiographer

Carol Lloyd, Occupational therapist

Ian Massey, Prosthetist & Orthotist

Gordon Sutehall, Biomedical scientist

Norma Brook, President of the Health Professions Council said "It has been a privilege to work alongside the current Council members during the last four years. I would like to take this opportunity to thank them for all their hard work and for the valuable contribution they have made to the Council's work and to wish them well for the future."